Important Information about your BMI License

Your licensing fee is based on the rate schedule as set forth by the U.S. Copyright Office. If you are affiliated with an accredited educational institution recognized by the U.S. Department of Education, you are eligible for the Non-Commercial Educational rate. If your educational institution is licensed under BMI's College/University license, your station is eligible to be licensed under that Agreement. In addition, if your station is an affiliate of National Public Radio (NPR), you may qualify for that Agreement. Please contact your BMI Representative for details.

The rate table below is for all other Non-Commercial stations.
